HONDO, MEDINA COUNTY, TEXAS, SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1917.

VOL. 31. No. 39

Meeting at Court House.

Meeting of business men and others was held at the court house on Friday night. County Demonstrator Lee pointed out the necessity of planting food and feed this year. He pointed out the planting of a large acreage of food of all kinds, such as sorghum, kafir corn, cowpeas, and peanuts.

Committee comprising Messrs. W. L. Smith, H. F. King, Horace Bradley, Geo. Muenning and Paul Richter appointed to assist the farmers in planting seed to get them.

Meeting unanimously voted to ask farmers over the county to destroy stubble, as these serve as a nesting place for boll weevil.

Mr. Wilson stated to the meeting that he would furnish water to small home gardens.

The committee met Wednesday afternoon. The use of water for home gardens will be allowed under the following provisions: The garden shall contain over three hundred square feet. No one will be allowed to irrigate at night. This was done as it was thought by limiting the water there would not be so much forcing to close the water off and allowing the water to run all night and day. In order that the best possible service might be rendered the water was divided. That part south of railroad track are to use water Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, those on the north side will use Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Everyone is urged to exercise in the use of water and not to allow waste. The using of water is discouraged so that plenty can be had for gardens.

Question of getting planting was taken up. All those who planting seed are requested to call on Richter by Wednesday. The order to the seed in bulk so that they may be gotten as cheap as possible. Any one having an extra amount of planting seed is asked to see Richter as he will provide a buyer sure to place your order for Wednesday.

Philathea Class.

The Philathea Class met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Horger on Tuesday afternoon, April 17th. Seventeen members answered to roll call with Scripture verses. One visitor, Mrs. Dr. E. H. Newton, of Corsicana, was present also.

The meeting was opened by singing the class hymn, followed with prayer by the pastor.

A motion was made to use fifty percent of our dues for Red Cross purposes; also to simplify the refreshments during the war times. The vote upon both motions was unanimous.

The lesson was conducted by Bro. Long, the subject for this time being "The Glory of the Kingdom," which teaches of the reign of David, the greatest king of Israel, and also of Solomon, the wisest king.

After the lesson, refreshments, consisting of grape juice and delicious cake, was served by the hostess.

On the 3rd of April Miss Lola Buchanan was hostess to the class, and the reporter being absent, no report was made of the meeting, but from all accounts it was one of the most interesting meetings we have had this year, especially the refreshments which Lola served so sumptuously, and all declared her a royal hostess, indeed.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. I. H. King on Tuesday afternoon, May 1st, at 3:30 o'clock.

The Recital and Play.

The recital and play given by Miss Barton's music class at the auditorium Wednesday night was witnessed by a good audience and proved quite a treat to those present. The young people acquitted themselves well in both the musical and play part of the program.

Dress-Making.

I will do dress-making and all kinds of plain sewing. Call at my residence. 39 1m Mrs. Harm Frerichs.

An Appreciation.

Many hearts in the Yancey community were made unspeakably sad by the news announcing the death of Miss Bertha Childress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Childress—which occurred March 22, 1917. She was so well known, and so universally loved, throughout our community, that the taking of this beautiful life from our midst, naturally, brought grief to all our hearts.

We cannot realize that she is gone. That sweet innocent face that spoke so frankly; the warm, loving heart, stands before us still. We recall with sad pleasure the bright cheerful presence of Miss Bertha in our Epworth League services; her faithfulness and earnestness in all church work, and her regular and constant attendance upon the preaching services. Her happy spirit and words of appreciation often inspired and strengthened the heart of this Pastor. We can see her, even now, as she sat in her place, in the congregation; always bright, and hopeful as she drank in the words of Gospel truth. Can it be, that we shall see her face, here no more? Yes, we shall see her, here, as often, as we think of a pure, unselfish character; as often, as we see tears of sympathy; as often as we meet with a spirit, thoughtful and considerate of others; as often as we think of innocent, radiant womanhood, we shall see her again. How simple, and how full, was her faith. She seemed to see the good hand of God in all things, and had no fear of death, and in her last illness, a few days before her death, often wondered, why, people should fear to die, or dread the final summons. She loved God and her church. Her death, the resignation of her spirit into the hands of her Heavenly Father, was peaceful and beautiful, because her life was radiant with Christian faith, and Christ-like deeds.

She was in the bloom of young womanhood when death summoned her away. She was twenty one years, one month, and a few days, old. Was born Feb. 16, 1896. She was the light of the home, the pride of her father's heart, her mother's constant joy, her sister's faithful companion, her brother's guardian angel, and a loving friend of all. Earth is much poorer when such a one dies, but ah, how heaven in its resplendent glory is enriched by her entrance there.

Miss Bertha joined the Methodist church when she was about seven years old, and never knew anything but a sweet, pure, Christian life. She was also a member of Yancey Chapter, Order Eastern Star, No. 314, and was Past Matron of her lodge.

With tears, we lay this tribute to her memory, and as we bow ourselves in sympathy with her grief-stricken father, and mother, and brother, and sister, we thank God for the providence, that has brought this sweet young life before us, and for the privilege of having known her. She was buried at Tenuacana, and laid to rest, amid flowers and tears, by the Order Eastern Star, of Yancey. She is not dead, but gone on before. Why do we mourn when another star shines out from the glittering sky? Do we weep when the voice of war, And the rage of conflict die? And why do our tears roll down, And our hearts be sorely riven, For another gem in the Savior's crown, Another soul in heaven.

Joe Finger Critically Ill.

Mr. Joe Finger of D'Hanis, who has been critically ill in San Antonio, passed through here yesterday enroute to his home accompanied by his son, John Finger, who was called to San Antonio early in the week owing to the seriousness of his father's condition. The old gentleman stood the trip well up to the time of reaching here, and his friends trust the crisis in his illness has passed.

Come on! Let's Go! Let 'em buck! Stay with 'im cowboy! Turn 'er loose, lets see which way she's goin! All these and many more of the old familiar phrases of the old boys of the plains will be heard when the band begins to play at the opening of the Lucille Mulhall Round up and Cowmen's picnic at San Antonio, May 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Notice.

To our patrons:

There will be a class offered in German by Miss Frenzel here this summer beginning Monday June the fourth and continuing eight weeks. Those wishing to take advantage of this course will please make arrangements with her before the close of school as she must know before she goes home for a visit.

Also there will be a summer school for those that are weak in their work and wish to strengthen by review or by taking special work, and to those that have failed in part of their studies and wish to raise this condition that they may continue with their grade. There will be no promotions with a condition. I shall have charge of this school and will secure assistants if necessary. This school will begin Monday May 28.

Respectfully, J. W. PEELER.

The Edison Diamond Disc

OVER ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND musicians and music lovers have heard these astounding tests. The music critics of more than one hundred of America's leading newspapers confess that their trained ears are unable to distinguish (although aided by direct comparison), between an artist's performance and Edison's Re-Creation of that artist's performance. A booklet containing their critiques will be mailed to anyone who requests it.

"Talking machines" give only a mechanical reproduction of musical sounds. Edison's new invention ACTUALLY RE-CREATES all forms of music. Therein is found the difference.

How to Make Toast.

An expert eater of 30 years in his little book for invalids puts this matter of making toast in a very satisfactory way. He says: "Many seem to think they have made toast when they brown the outside of a slice of bread? Have they? The object of making toast is to evaporate all the moisture from the bread, and holding a slice over the fire to singe does not accomplish this; it only warms the moisture, making the inside of the bread doughy and decidedly indigestible. The true way of preparing it is to cut the bread into slices a quarter of an inch thick trim off all crust, put the slices in a pan or plate, place them in the oven, which must not be too hot, take them out when a delicate brown, and butter at once."

Rubber Output to Increase.

The rubber output of the world will be increased to nearly 200,000 tons this year, according to the London Times' annual financial and commercial review. This is an increase of about 50,000 tons over the previous year's production. The acreage devoted to rubber is now estimated at one-half million, of which Malaysia has 670,000 acres. The United States is expected to take more than half of the world's production.

It's Surprising.

That So Many Hondo People Fail To Recognize Kidney Weakness. Are you a bad back victim? Suffer twinges; headaches, dizzy spells? Go to bed tired - get up tired? It's surprising how few know what to do. Kidney trouble needs kidney treatment. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. Have convinced Hondo people of their merit. Here's a Hondo case; Hondo testimony. Kidney sufferers herabouts should read it. Mrs. C. H. Sayers, Hondo, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have done me a lot of good and I have no hesitation in recommending them to others who suffer as I did. They gave me great relief and I can safely say that they are the best kidney medicine that I have ever used." Price 50c, at all dealers. FIND IT HARD TO BE MANLY

One of the Most Trying Jobs for Girls Is to Learn to Walk Like the Sterner Sex.

"One of the hardest jobs in my life," said a stage manager who is drilling a chorus to wear men's clothes, "is teaching girls to act like men. The first thing a girl does, when she gets into men's attire, is to put her hands in her trousers pockets. She thinks it looks 'manly.' And so it would if she did it naturally. "First of all, she thrusts her hands down as far as they will go, and then proceeds to spread out the pockets of her trousers until it looks as though she had a four-pound loaf in each. She thinks that is just what a man would do, though I bet she's never seen him do it. Well, when I have drummed into their heads that men don't go about showing the size of their pockets, but let it be known occasionally that they possess hands, I have got to teach them how to walk. "For some reason or other girls are mighty pleased with themselves when they get a pair of trousers on, and they are never tired of admiring their feet, which look smaller, somehow, than when peeping beneath a skirt. Having informed them that a man doesn't spend all his time looking at his toes, I beg and implore them to walk across the stage 'just like the men do.' "Is there anything else easier? You'd soon find out if you watched those girls. A dozen or so will start as though they were entering for a foot race, crossing the stage in about ten strides. Others will do the same distance in 20, 30 or even 40. One will take short, jerky steps, averaging three to the yard; another, long strides; a third, something between a hop and a skip. "Not one of them can walk like her brother or her father, or like any man that was ever born. I get them to follow me about the stage and endeavor to imitate my walk, but it's a tough job. They can't get out of walking with a wiggle, and it's my belief they think it adds to the attractiveness of pedestrian exercise." - Pittsburgh Dispatch.

WHAT IS LAX-FOS

LAX-FOS IS AN IMPROVED CASCARA A DIGESTIVE LAXATIVE CATHARTIC AND LIVER TONIC
LAX-FOS is not a Secret or Patent Medicine but is composed of the following old-fashioned roots and herbs:
CASCARA BARK
BLUE FLAG ROOT
BLACK ROOT
MAY APPLE ROOT
SENNA LEAVES
AND PEPsin
In LAX-FOS the CASCARA is improved by the addition of these digestive ingredients making it better than ordinary CASCARA, and thus the combination acts not only as a stimulating laxative and cathartic but also as a digestive and liver tonic. Syrup laxatives are weak, but LAX-FOS combines strength with palatable, aromatic taste and does not gripe or disturb the stomach. One bottle will prove LAX-FOS is invaluable for Constipation, Indigestion or Torpid Liver. Price 50c.

Spring Colds Are the Worst

They lead to catarrh and pneumonia. They weaken the entire system and leave it unable to resist the sudden changes. They interfere with your digestion and lessen your activity. Neglected they soon become that dread disease known as systemic catarrh. Don't neglect them. It's costly as well as dangerous.

PERUNA Will Safeguard You

Have a box of Peruna Tablets with you for the sudden cold or exposure. Tone your system up with a regular course of the liquid Peruna, fortify it against colds, get your digestion up to normal, take care of yourself, and avoid danger. If you are suffering now begin the treatment at once. Give Nature the help she needs to throw off the catarrhal inflammation, and again become well.

Peruna has been helping people for 44 years. Thousands of homes rely on it for coughs, cold and indigestion. It's a good tonic for the weak, as well.

WORDS OF WISE MEN

It is on the anvil of trial by the blows of sacrifice and of sorrow that the life of man is shaped to its noblest form.

Reading furnishes the mind only with materials of knowledge; it is thinking that makes what we read ours.

This is the true nature of home—it is the place of peace; the shelter not only from all injury, but from all terror, doubt and division.

Greatness lies not in being strong, but in the right using of strength, and strength is not used rightly when it serves only to carry a man above his fellows for his own solitary glory. He is the greatest whose strength carries up the most hearts by the attraction of his own.

"DON'TS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS"

- Don't put vinegar or sour acids in metal dishes.
- Don't put ice in your drinking water. Cool the water by putting it near the ice.
- Don't put butter in the refrigerator with the wrapping on it.
- Don't salt meat before the cooking.
- Add salt after meat is cooked or when nearly done.
- Don't make bread into large loaves. The center is apt to be underdone.
- Don't put damp towels or napkins in the hamper. Dry them first or they will mildew.
- Don't use steel knives for cutting fish, oysters, sweetbreads or brains. The steel blackens and gives an unpleasant flavor to the food.
- Don't wash glasses in clear water; use a little soap.
- Don't spoil good, fresh fruit by making it into pies or puddings.
- Don't scrub your refrigerator with warm water. When necessary sponge out quickly with two ounces of formaldehyde in two quarts of cold water.
- Don't pour boiling water over china cracked in a pan. It will crack by the sudden expansion.

When Pressing Silk.

Always press silk under a piece of muslin to prevent the silk from becoming hard and crackly. First dampen the muslin, and use a moderately hot iron till the muslin is quite dry.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Use LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops the cold, breaks the headache and works off the cold. It gives relief money if it fails to cure. It is GROVE'S signature on each box. 25c.

DO YOU DREAD WINTER?

If every man, woman and child in this vicinity would only take one spoonful of after meals for one month, it would put vigor in their blood to withstand the rigors of winter weather and help prevent colds, grippe and winter sickness.

SCOTT'S is a fortifying medicinal-food of particular benefit in changing seasons, and every drop yields direct returns in richer blood, stronger lungs, and greater resistive power. No alcohol in SCOTT'S.

Texas Must Feed Herself or Go Hungry

The zone map printed below, suggestions for crops and time for planting, are reproduced from matter prepared under the direction of Clarence Osley, director Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, with the Texas Bankers' Association assisting.

Preparation and Cultivation

The serious, far-reaching nature of world developments and the possible consequences of a state that Texas farmers are urged to plant every available acre not otherwise utilized to food and feed crops.

Upon many farms there are small plots of land that can be made to grow many tons of food and feed. If the soil is prepared immediately and kept in good condition by harrowing this land should be planted to a fall crop preferably every acre of small grain. Plant dry if moisture is not available. In Zones Nos. 1 and 2 use one bushel broadcast per acre, and cultivate.

In harvesting the small grain, the disc harrow should immediately follow the disc harrow and the section serve any moisture that may be in the soil. This will help to conserve moisture, and will prevent soil erosion. By following this method, planting may be deferred until the risk of harvest season is over. Late planted crops respond as readily to a thoroughly prepared seed bed and good cultivation as those that are planted early in the season. If the soil is not a good soil, at all times, is essential. If the soil is to be expected from late plantings. The small plots should be kept in condition by breaking as early as possible, and by frequent cultivation with the harrow. The harrow should be run every seven to ten days.

For convenience, the State is divided into zones, numbered from one to five, and suggestions made in regard to crops and food crops that may be planted to supplement those already under way. In the table indication is given of the latest date upon which these crops can be planted with a reasonable assurance of good yields. These dates may be varied slightly as between the northern and southern sections of the zone. Other farm products may be included if you have some crop peculiarly adapted to your local needs.

Cow peas or peanuts should be planted in every acre of corn this year. If corn is planted in seven-foot rows, plant peas in the middles after the second or third cultivation in Zone No. 1. If corn is planted in narrow rows, plant peas at the last cultivation.

PLANTING DATES FOR FIELD CROPS

Zone No. 1.—Plant cow peas and peanuts up to June 15. Plant sweet potatoes up to June 15. June corn to June 15; sorghum (sowed broadcast for hay) to July 1. Sudan grass to July 1; millet to June 15. Fall Irish potatoes Aug. 5 to 15.

Zone No. 2.—Plant cow peas and peanuts up to June 15. Sweet potatoes to June 15; sorghum (broadcast for hay) to June 25. Sudan grass to June 25. Fall Irish potatoes Aug. 5 to 10, and June corn to June 15.

Zone No. 3.—Plant cow peas and peanuts to June 15. Sweet potatoes to June 15. Sudan grass to July 20. Fall Irish potatoes Sept. 1 to 10, and June corn to June 15.

PLANTING DATES FOR FIELD CROPS

Zone No. 4.—Plant cow peas and peanuts up to June 15. Sweet potatoes June 1; June corn, July 1; sorghum (for hay), July 1; Sudan grass, July 1, and fall Irish potatoes, Aug. 1 to 10.

Zone No. 5.—Plant cow peas and peanuts up to June 15. June corn, June 15; sorghum (for hay), July 1; Sudan grass, July 1.

VARIETIES

Cow peas: Groff, New Era and Prabhram; Whippoorwill; Black Eyes; Peanut: Spanish; Sorghum: Early Amber or Sumac. Sweet potatoes: Nancy Hall, Pearly Yam or Pumpkin Yam. Irish potatoes: Triumph. June corn: Dwarf.

FALL IRISH POTATOES

Select your seed at gathering of first crop, usually the small ones, necessarily not larger than a walnut. Put the potatoes in a cool, well ventilated, dry place. About two weeks before planting, spread potatoes in a shallow layer and place new or sand over them and keep damp by sprinkling water over them. As soon as sprouted, plant on land that has been thoroughly cultivated all the season before. The spring patch is an excellent place for fall potatoes. After sprouting, the potatoes should be cut before planting the same as those for spring planting. The Irish Cobbler and Triumph are the best varieties for fall planting and the Early Ohio is recommended for the sandy land of North and West Texas.

Plant enough so there will be a surplus for canning. A garden properly cared for is worth five times the same acreage in cotton. THE GARDEN WILL BE A FAILURE UNLESS IT IS PLANTED.

FALL TURNIPS

Summer cultivation of the turnip patch is necessary if a good crop is to be expected. The retention of the summer rain is needed to bring the turnips up and keep the small plants growing until fall rains come. Improved Purple Top, F. Dutch and Rutabaga are the best.

ADVERTISING IS AN OLD ART

Ancient Egyptians, Greeks and Romans Knew Something About the Value of Publicity.

Advertising was well known in the palmey days of Egypt. Of course, they didn't have the electric signs blazing across the sky, they didn't know that red makes the best color for advertising, green the second and black the next, but they did understand the first principles and applied them in daily life, says the Detroit Free Press.

Perhaps the first bit of advertising copy was the "lost, strayed or stolen" advertisement written by an Egyptian on a slip of papyrus when his favorite slave was missing.

The Greeks had even greater skill. They advertised their concerts, musical affairs, plays and contests. They gave us the idea of using bands to attract a crowd, for they sent around their cities a town crier, accompanied by a musician playing a harp or a lyre. He praised extravagantly in the best of Greek the thing he was advertising. Later the people began to advertise privately, on the walls of their homes, giving information about the standing of the family occupying the house and the state of their finances.

The Romans went them one better. They named their streets, advertised shows, sales and exhibitions in their public baths, notified the public of sales of estates, posted lists of articles lost and found and houses for sale or rent.

When the Huns swept down upon Rome the advertisements disappeared with the Roman power and did not return until the town crier of the middle ages began advertising again.

WHERE PAPRIKA COMES FROM

Foreign Product Now Successfully Raised by Many Farmers in South Carolina.

Years ago agents of the bureau of plant industry turned their attention to paprika pepper. We don't know what headed them toward pepper, and the report of their work does not tell us, a writer in Everybody's says. Paprika pepper is probably a mighty small item in our national food budget. Up to that time we imported all that we used from Hungary and Spain. Our agents studied the characteristics of the plant and the soil and climate and cultivation that it required.

Then they came back to this country to discover where paprika pepper could be profitably grown here. Down in Florence county, South Carolina, they found what appeared to be the required soil, climate and labor conditions. Moreover, the land there was not giving a really profitable account of itself. After the department had proved by its own experiments that paprika pepper could be successfully grown in South Carolina, it furnished seed to a group of farmers who agreed to grow it under their directions. This was to insure a product of a proper standard. The industry is now fairly well established, and if ever we should be at war with Hungary and Spain at the same time, probably South Carolina could supply all the faded palates of this country with a standard brand of paprika pepper.

Lesson of the Tug.

There's nothing dishonorable in being a tug. In times of need a tug is worth a thousand pleasure boats. It's what a man is able to do and does that tells what his worth is. Good clothes are pleasant to look upon, but they are often a hindrance in times of distress. Kid gloves may have a place in the family pew and social functions, but the ways of the world demand tougher stock in labor. It takes overalls, corduroy and buckskin to stand the strain. They are not beautiful but they are mighty efficient when the right kind of power gets inside of them. And you are no less a gentleman because they fit you. That man is honorable who makes himself respected by his conduct and the work he does. No amount of polish can atone for a mean ideal. And no amount of toil can lower the man of honor to the level of the beast. The tug may be insignificant beside the lines, but its work is just as honorable and often requires just as much brains and skill to accomplish it.—Pennsylvania Grit.

How to Deal With Germs.

In dealing with germs, it should be remembered that a germ of the mildest appearance may very often be most savage. Don't be deceived by a germ that looks harmless. The male germ, as a rule, is the most voracious and it may always be known by its gay plumage. Germs, as we have been taught, bring with them every sort of disease, and while germs are not always fatal, they try their best to be. The average conscientious germ is chagrined when he fails to kill. If a number of germs are engaged on a job and do not succeed they are in disgrace with the folks back home. Teach the children to swat the germs. Particularly the young germs. Germs, like people, are most odious at the adolescent age.

Cause for Congratulation.

"There are all kinds of optimists in this world, but did you ever see a man who was optimistic when he had the 'grippe'?"
"Only one."
"And what led him to take a cheerful view of life?"
"He was the husband of a suffering orator and his illness prevented him from accompanying her on a speaking tour."

Urges Square Deal For the Storage Battery.

"Every automobile owner recognizes the fact that unless he oils his motor regularly and keeps his radiator filled for cooling, his engine is going to 'burn up' and refuse to do its work," says Mr. R. A. Carter of the local Prest-O-Lite Battery Service Station. "Also, he realizes that unless the gears and bearings are lubricated periodically they will surely be put out of commission in short order. Therefore, he supplies oil and grease to the mechanism and water to the radiator in a regular way as a matter of course.

"It is a peculiar fact, however, that many of these same motorists absolutely ignore the storage battery until it dies an unnatural death. They seem to look upon it as an inexhaustible 'magic box' which in some way is supposed to take care of itself.

"As a matter of fact it requires as careful and regular attention as the rest of the car and if accorded this attention, most battery ills would be prevented.

"Storage batteries are like human beings in that they must have 'food' and 'drink' regularly or they will weaken and their lives be shortened. By 'food' is meant the current which must be put back by the generator. Generators are designed to meet average driving conditions. Often in city driving where the starter is used frequently and short trips made, the generator does not recharge the battery in proportion to the current discharge demanded. On the other hand, long and fast cross-country driving with little use of the starter and lights overcharges the battery which hastens evaporation of the water in the cells.

"Regular inspection will tell you the condition of your battery. If it is undercharging the specific gravity of the electrolyte will be 1.250 or less; if it is overcharging it will be over 1.300 and the battery will show signs of excessive heat and spraying.

"The most common abuse of the battery, and one of the most ruinous, is allowing it to go 'dry'. The electrolyte solution must always completely cover the plates in all cells. In order to maintain the proper level and mixture of the solution, distilled water must be added regularly—once a week in warm weather, to replace the water which has evaporated. The acid does not evaporate, therefore, none must be added—replenishing of the distilled water brings the solution back to the proper mixture. This is just as important as adding lubricating oil to the oiling system. If it is not done, something is bound to happen.

"We realize that a great many motorists are apt to forget their batteries, consequently The Prest-O-Lite Company, Inc. has established special service stations all over the country where inspection and filling service of expert character is provided for all car owners. This service is to be had at our Service Station at Hondo Auto Sales Co. Every battery user is urged to use it as often as he desires. Our experts can detect irregularities and rectify them before they work serious damage to the battery. This service is maintained for the general good of battery users and the motorist who does not avail himself of it regularly is not only taking unnecessary chances with his battery but he is not getting what is coming to him.

"Any motorist who is interested in learning more about his battery will receive some useful information by calling at our Service Station and asking for our 'Brief Instructions for Battery Care.'

Insomnia.

"Tenting Tonight"

Mary Roberts Rinehart has contributed to the May issue of Cosmopolitan Magazine a brilliant article entitled "Tenting Tonight". In this narrative Mrs. Rinehart tells the story of her wonderful trip to the great Northwestern Rockies, and tells it in such a fascinating manner that the reader's interest is held from beginning to end. The article is illustrated with a number of remarkable photographs taken on the trip.

Upper Hondo Farmers' Institute.

Upper Hondo is greatly interested in its Farmers' Institute. Some time ago we re-organized our institute and are having regular monthly meetings. At our last meeting various subjects were discussed. Messrs G. E. Miller and E. Kiebers spoke along the lines of co-operation and the training of the youth, especially on an agricultural basis.

Mr. Marquis made us a splendid talk on music after which the Institute took steps to have music and singing at every meeting.

Mr. Scheile told us of the corn problem while Mr. Aug. Sprout discussed the "tater" question.

Pursuant to the request by the State Department of Agriculture we had a special meeting at which war crops were discussed. The community agrees to be patriotic enough to put in a greater acreage of food and feed crops than last year.

Our meetings come the second Saturday of each month. Visitors are always welcome.

Safe Medicine For Children

"Is it safe?" is the first question to be considered when buying cough medicine for children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has long been a favorite with mothers of young children as it contains no opium or other narcotics, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. It is pleasant to take, too, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. This remedy is most effectual in relieving coughs, colds and croup. Obtainable everywhere.

Local U. S. Marine Scores as Marksmen.

Coming rapidly to the front through his ability as a rifleman, James L. Vance of Devine, this county, has qualified as a marksman in the United States Marine Corps, according to an official bulletin from Washington. He recently made an excellent score at "slow and rapid" fire, winning the badge of marksmanship and increase of pay.

James, who is a son of Mrs. Constance Vance of Devine, enlisted in the United States Marine Corps at its San Antonio recruiting station on Dec. 12, 1916, and has just completed his course of instruction at the training camp, Port Royal, S. C. From the start he has made good as a rifleman and promises to have a successful career as a "Soldier of the sea."

Dozens of recruits arrive daily at Port Royal, and they take a keen interest in our country's preparation for war. Without a doubt the Devine boy and his comrades will give a good account of themselves whenever they are called upon to go into action.

Sprains and Strains Relieved.

Sloan's Liniment quickly takes the pain out of strains, sprains, bruises and all muscle soreness. A clean, clear liquid easily applied, it quickly penetrates without rubbing. Sloan's Liniment does not stain the skin or clog the pores like mussy plasters or ointments. For chronic rheumatic aches and lumbago have this well-known remedy handy. For the pains of grippe and following strenuous work, it gives quick relief. At all druggists, 25c.

The reason a man is a man is because he thinks he ought to wear the breeches and his wife patch them.

For Constipation.

Mr. L. H. Farnham, a prominent druggist of Spirit Lake, Iowa, says: "Chamberlain's Tablets are certainly the best thing on the market for constipation." Give these tablets a trial. You are certain to find them agreeable and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. For sale by All Dealers.

The Seven Pies

"Pretty big order, Lem," remarked Uncle Si Bonney with interest, as the last whisk of the customer's skirts vanished through the grocery door. "I kind of guess Minnie Wimble must be expectin' Henry's folks."

"Guess so," assented Lem. "Fur's that goes, though, Myron's keen for good things, not to mention havin' 'em accordin' to custom and tradition. He'd want everything same's it used to be at Gran'ma Fenderson's, seven pies and all, if there wa'n't a soul to eat 'em except him and Minnie; and Minnie, she'd give him what he wanted if it was fried moon with star sauce."

Uncle Eli Emmons brought the forelegs of his tilted chair to the floor and sat up straight.

"I remember hev'n Thanksgiving dinner to Gran'ma Fenderson's onct," he announced. "Um! Thanksgiving ain't what it used to be. Minnie Wimble may want to give Myron the same he used to get at Gran'ma Fenderson's, but I don't believe she's up to it. Like's not she wouldn't know what was gran'ma's seven kinds of pie, to begin with."

"Oh, come now, Eli!" protested Uncle Si Bonney. "Mebbe women ain't stickin' so close over the cookstove's they used to, but when it comes to extry occasions, I guess their gran'ma's wouldn't hev to be ashamed of 'em; not of the dinner Susan's plannin' for's a fair sample. Turkey to one end of the table, chicken and oyster pie tother, ham halfway down, and plenty of fixin's. Chestnut stuffin', too—m-m-m!"

"Umph!" snorted Uncle Eli suspiciously. "How about pies?"

"Mince, apple, pumpkin and custard," recited Uncle Si relishingly.

"Four!" said Uncle Eli scornfully. "There'd oughter be seven. And a cracker puddin'."

"No, there oughtn't," declared Uncle Si with spirit. "There wa'n't any ice cream to Gran'ma Fenderson's. Ye don't need a puddin', and four kinds of pie is enough when ye have ice cream."

"I want cracker puddin'," declared Uncle Eli belligerently. "I shan't get it, nor ice cream neither; but I want it, anyhow. And I didn't say seven kinds of pie was needful, unless a person's bein' set up to equal Gran'ma Fenderson's."

"Well, she always had seven," admitted Uncle Si. "Apple, pumpkin, custard, mince, cranberry—that's five—coconut—"

"Nobody in the Fenderson family ate coconut. 'Twas Marlborough," contradicted Uncle Eli.

"Banbury," suggested Uncle Si hopefully, after a meditative pause.

"Banbury ain't pie; it's tarts," asserted Uncle Eli decisively.

"Sure it wasn't coconut?"

"Sure. Old Cap'n Fenderson hated coconuts. Said they was sticky, gritty, sweet, messy things; no fit food for Christians."

"Huckleberry?" suggested Lem.

"Huckleberry!" Uncle Eli's scorn was scathing. "'Twa'n't huckleberry no more'n 'twas currant nor raspberry. 'Twas a particler kind of pie. Let-me-think; mince, apple, custard, pumpkin, Marlborough; why, that's only five!"

"Lost a pie, Eli?" reproved Lem.

"Pumpkin, Marlborough, custard, mince, apple," repeated Uncle Eli in worried tones. "Where's that sixth pie gone to?"

"Cranberry, Eli, cranberry," Uncle Si reminded him soothingly.

"Cranberry," Uncle Eli echoed with relief. "Well, we got back to six again; but there'd ought to be seven."

Mrs. Wimble dropped in again just then to add a jar of Canton ginger to her list. Preoccupied with his intense effort of memory, Uncle Eli did not notice her, but Uncle Si remarked casually:

"We was talkin' about Thanksgiving's like they used to be to Gran'ma Fenderson's, Minnie. S'pose you don't remember 'bout her seven kinds of pie?"

"Remember? No; but Myron's told me often enough," she replied. "Perfectly ridiculous, I call it; but all the same I'm going to surprise him this year with the whole seven. I had quite a time getting hold of the right rule for old-fashioned green tomato pie, though."

"Green tomato!" shouted Uncle Eli explosively. "That's it! That's the seventh pie!"

Uncle Si chuckled wheezily. "Mebbe Minnie'll save ye out a piece for old time's sake, ef ye ask her pretty," he suggested. "Might even bake ye a saucer pie special. Womenfolks hev changed a mite, someways, but they haven't stopped pamperin' us menfolks in our appetites."

"You shall have a green tomato saucer pie, Uncle Eli," agreed Mrs. Wimble, "but I won't promise that it'll be as good as Gran'ma Fenderson's."

"Now, that's real kind of ye, Minnie," said Uncle Eli graciously; and as she departed he began counting over once more in a reminiscent murmur, while Uncle Si kept tally, finger by finger:

"Apple, mince, custard, cranberry, pumpkin, Marlborough, green tomato—seven pies!"—Youth's Companion.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 10

The Man Who Retreats Before His Defeat!

By Herbert Kaufman.

Advertising isn't magic. There is no element of the black art about it. In its best and highest form it is plain talk, sane talk—selling talk. Its results are in proportion to the merit of the subject advertised and the ability with which the advertising is done.

There are two great enemies to advertising profit, and both of them are caused by ignorance of the real functions and workings of publicity.

The one is to advertise promises which will not be fulfilled, because all that advertising can do when it accomplishes most is to influence the reader of your copy to investigate your claims.

If you promise the earth and deliver the moon advertising will not pay you.

If you draw men and women to your store and pretend to fail to make good, advertising will have harmed you because it has only drawn attention to the fact that you are to be avoided.

It is as unjust to charge advertising with failure under these conditions as it would be for your neighbor to rob a bank and find yourself indicted for his misdeed. In brief, advertised dishonesty is even more profitable than unexploited deception.

The other great error in advertising is to expect more out of advertising than there is in it.

Advertising is seed which a merchant plants in the confidence of the community. He must allow time for it to grow. Every successful advertiser has to be patient. The time that it takes to arrive at results rests entirely with the ability and determination you display in the effort. But you cannot turn back when you have traveled half way and declare that the path is wrong.

You can't advertise for a week and because your store isn't crowded say it hasn't paid you. It takes a certain period to attract the attention of readers. Everybody doesn't see what you print the first time it appears. More will notice your copy the second day, a great many more at the end of a month.

You cannot expect to win the confidence of the community to the same degree that other men have obtained it without taking pretty much the same length of time that they did. But you can cut short the period between your introduction to your reader and his introduction to your counters by spending more effort in preparing your copy and displaying a greater amount of convincingness.

You mustn't act like the little girl who planted a garden and came out the next day expecting to find it in full bloom. Her father had to explain to her that plans require roots and that, although she could not see what was going on, the seeds were doing their most important work just before the flowers showed above ground.

So advertising is doing its most important work before the big results eventuate, and to abandon the money which has been invested just before results arrive is not only foolish but childish. It would be just as logical for a farmer to abandon his fields before he could not harvest his corn a week after he planted it.

Advertising does not require faith—merely common sense. If it is begun in doubt and deserted before normal results can be reasonably looked for, the fault does not lie with the newspaper or with publicity—it rests entirely upon the head of the coward who retreated before he was defeated.

Greatest Loss a Community
Can Suffer.

When the social and educational life of any community falls below the level of the average, the very best people are among the first to leave the community. In this way the leadership is being rapidly lost from many of the wealthier localities of Texas, farms and cities. The country is rapidly declining in social and economic prestige. The rural community in Texas has a good school building and four teachers, less than two years ago, the following dialogue took place between the writer and eight children doing high school work: "What do you do for pastime?" "Nothing especially." "Have you a ball team?" "No, but it's mighty weak." "When have you had a public gathering of any sort in the school auditorium since November. Almost three years ago?" "What do you do when Sunday comes?" "We go to church if we can." "After do you have church service a month at one of the churches and just when they can get away at the other one?" "What do you mean to do when school starts?" "We can't leave these boys for not staying in that community? We are straining for the want of amusement and social life. Their discontent and desire to get away from the monotonous environment were the very strongest reasons that there was something in the community worth while. If they were satisfied with such conditions it would have been because they are stupid fellows. These boys will leave that community and blame them for doing so. When they go, their loss to it will be serious. Do you know of a community that has lost some of its people for the reasons just given? About your own community? Outside families that would make neighbors anxious to move away from the community because of the social, educational and cultural values you have to offer them?"

Scientists say that this means a rapid lowering of the life tenor and blood vigor of the country. For those that remain behind, the dominant stock for next generation, and upon these the same process is repeated. If this is the case, whose is the fault? But this we know for sure, the normal state to be where something is being done, and if you would retain the life in the country, you must be doing something to keep him.

S. W. Tel. and Tel. Co. Does Its Bit.

Dallas, April 10—The men of The Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company as they can be spared from the regular organization maintained to give necessary service in both peace and war, are to organize a unit for the United States army signal corps reserve, and just to call with the regular army.

Notice of the organization of the proposed unit has been distributed among the employees. While the company does not exert any influence upon men to join, the movement is recognized and application blanks are supplied. Arrangements are being made with the Government by which it is expected the proffered service will be accepted.

It is proposed to enlist and maintain the reserve signal corps organization, made up of skilled men, through both peace and war as a part of the permanent contribution of the Bell Telephone organization toward the public safety. In time of peace the telephone men belonging to the signal corps will be called upon to drill regularly and will be given fifteen days' training each summer at full company pay plus the allowance of the Government. At the same time they will retain their company positions and prerogatives under the liberal benefit plan of the company. Vacations will not be curtailed by reason of participation in military maneuvers.

In time of war when the corps is called to the colors for prolonged service, full company pay will be allowed for one month and thereafter the difference between their regular salary and the amount allowed by the Government will be granted during one year. If service is for a longer period further provision will probably be made. Eligibility to benefits under the Benefit Plan will be retained in full and upon return from such duty, after honorable discharge, such employment as the needs of the telephone service will permit will be given.

Immediate steps will be taken to bring about the organization of these signal corps units among expert telephone men, it is stated.

"In this way," explains General Manager C. A. Gates of The Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company, "The full benefits of the specialized knowledge and experience of every available employee will be brought into play and, at the same time, the integrity of the service, more than ever necessary in times of unrest, will be preserved. The telephone organization of the country is doing its utmost in a patriotic way to help the Government and perform its share of the work which true patriotic impulse demands."

Why Constipation Injures.
The bowels are the natural sewerage system of the body. When they become obstructed by constipation a part of the poisonous matter which they should carry off is absorbed into the system, making you feel dull and stupid, and interfering with the digestion and assimilation of food. This condition is quickly relieved by Chamberlain's Tablets. Obtainable everywhere.

Furthermore, even if the world could be rid of germs, the chiggers would still remain to harass mankind.

Spring.
Spring is looked upon by many as the most delightful season of the year, but this cannot be said of the rheumatic. The cold and damp weather brings on rheumatic pains which are anything but pleasant. They can be relieved, however, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Obtainable everywhere.

Constant Backache
and Rheumatism
Foley Kidney Pills fixed up Texas brakeman so he's good as ever. Almost down and out with kidney trouble. Rheumatism so bad he could scarcely get up when he sat down. Back ached all the time. No wonder Mr. F. A. Woolley, brakeman on the road from Dallas to Jackson, Texas, "was tired of living." "I saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised," he said, "I took some and after a short time I was thoroughly cured and am having no more trouble. My kidney pills will disappear—and with them the backache and rheumatism, by the use of Foley's Kidney Pills. Once your kidneys become strong and active, aches and pains will disappear like magic. There's nothing to equal the genuine. Will help any case of kidney or bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicines. Contains no harmful drugs. Try them. Sold everywhere and in Hondo by W. H. Windrow."

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezone cost very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tonic" is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tonic is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Life Was a Misery
Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to
The Woman's Tonic
"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . . It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

KEEP THESE IN THE MIND

Small Things, Some of Them, but They Will Be Found of Value to the Housewife.

Teacups with broken handles are useful for poaching eggs. Butter the inside, break the egg into the cup, and stand the cup in the frying pan half-filled with water. It keeps the egg a good shape when poached, easy to slip onto toast, and is cleaner than poaching in a frying pan.

A most excellent way to use ashes is to mix them with about an equal quantity of small coal, and then well damp with soapy water—any suds you happen to have—the more soapy the better. A fire made up with two or three lumps of coal, well banked with this mixture, lasts a surprisingly long time.

The scotch mark is one of the most difficult of all to deal with. Here is a good mixture for removing it: Boil together two ounces of soda, two ounces of fuller's earth, half a pint of vinegar, and a finely-chopped onion for ten minutes. Strain the mixture, and when cold spread a little on the mark, and allow to dry. Then wash in the usual way.

Gold and silver lace and trimming soon get tarnished. Try cleaning this way: Take a stale loaf and rub the inside to make crumbs, and mix with a half-pound powdered blue. Lay this plentifully on the lace and rub gently until it becomes bright. Then take a piece of clean flannel and dust the crumbs well off. Finally rub the lace gently with a piece of velvet, and it will look as bright as when new.

Most housewives boil the household's supply of milk before use, and some burn it too. The latter annoyance will never occur if a little water, about an inch deep, is first rapidly boiled in the saucepan, and the milk then added.

Firm jellies are favorites that often fail to set to perfection. Stand the mold in a basin of water containing a good handful of salt and soda. A mild freezing mixture is the result, and even on the hottest day a firm, cool jelly will be the reward.

Cold joints have a habit of appearing on the table very dry and hard, especially during warm weather. This will not happen if, after the joint has been first cut, it is wrapped, when cold, in a moist serviette, and placed in a darkened meat safe with a dish cover over it.

SUSPICIOUS MIND

Wife—This is a good old world after all.
Hubby—Humph! What scandal have you heard now?

Water Clear and Soft.

The first requirement for good laundry work is that the water used should be clear and soft so that it will easily form a suds with soap. The temperature should be suited to the various needs. It is best to use cold water when attempting to remove unknown stains. Water for washing white cottons and linens is at the right temperature when one can comfortably bear the hand in it. Boiling is best for clothes which are especially soiled or which need sterilizing.

Potato Kugle.

Take six medium potatoes, one egg, teaspoonful salt, dash of pepper, teaspoonful of cinnamon, one and a half tablespoonfuls fat. Grate your potatoes, and if liked, grate half of a small onion in. Beat your egg, add salt, pepper and cinnamon. Beat up all together thoroughly and put in your melted fat. Grease your pudding dish, put in ingredients and put a little bit of fat on top. Bake in moderate oven about three-quarters of an hour. Length of time of baking depends on your oven. You can put a little sugar over it if you wish. Do not put sugar inside. Will send in other recipes when you want them. Hope I have made it plain enough. You can make potato pancakes from the same mixture by dropping a spoonful on a smoking-hot griddle. Eat with sugar.
